Notes:

1. This notice must be given within 5 business days after the day on which the relevant securities were issued by the issuer.
2. A determination by ASIC under section 708A(2) must not be in force in relation to the issuer at the time when the relevant securities are issued.
3. The giving of this notice to ASX may, but will not necessarily, enable a person to make an offer of the relevant securities for sale (sale offer) within 12 months after their issue.
4. The sale offer does not need disclosure to investors if:
 - (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities that were quoted ED securities at all times in the 12 months before the day on which the relevant securities were issued and trading in that class of securities on ASX was not suspended for more than a total of 5 days in that 12 months;
 - (b) no exemption under sections 111AS or 111AT covered the issuer, or any person as director or auditor of the issuer, at any time in that 12 months;
 - (c) no order under sections 340 or 341 can have covered the issuer, or any person as director or auditor of the issuer, at any time in that 12 months; and
 - (d) the issuer gives the relevant market operator for it a notice that complies with section 708A.
5. Excluded information is information :
 - (a) that has been excluded from a continuous disclosure notice in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules; and
 - (b) that investors and their professional advisers would reasonably require for the purposes of making an informed assessment of:
 - (i) the assets and liabilities, financial position and performance, profits and losses and prospects of the body; and
 - (ii) the rights and liabilities attaching to the relevant securities.
6. The notice must contain any excluded information only to the extent to which it is reasonable for investors and their professional advisers to expect to find the information in a disclosure document.
